About us

H.P. Somerset is the namesake of this region including the dam.

He, and local families built Caboonbah udenominational church in 1905 to be open to all in the community and run by volunteers.

About the Bunyip Festival

An initiative to encourage community, wellbeing & the sustainability of this historic building and surrounds

Entry by donation

Churches working together (an ecumenical group of six local denominations working collectively) will hold a service in the church building at 1pm All picnickers are welcome.
