New Website

I. Blackwood – The system is live, email notices have gone out to members in grace period and getting feedback.

Rover P6

K. Teske purchased a P6, repaired it and will have it for sale soon.

Showed a brand new in box light lens. Has used Chat GPT to reproduced boxes for Layland and Rover Boxes. Launching parts website soon.

Shared information on the Auston and Rover registration files and MG Metro Concept drawings sold recently.

Scott's Rubbers

Discussed Scott's Rubbers being taken over recently.

Events

4th April Rove to the Bus Museum was an interesting place and enjoyed by those who attended.

26th April 2026 – Coominya Charity Event raised by D. Ash. Secretary to email out flyer and put on website. J. Coutts shared some of the history of the church and house and early warning Brisbane flood system. A film was made about it.

May 2026 Bundaberg Rove is next month with Seventeen Mile Rocks as an alternative Rove.

QAM Caloundra 2027 – to be discussed at committee.

RACQ Motorfest registration due 15th of May 2026. Plan to meetup at Freedom Windsor. Ideas to keep the group together include at the Motorfest (because the club got split up at the gate), included having a paddle with our logo or a vehicle sash. Also 50th anniversary display. Discuss at Committee.

50th Anniversary – Suggested venue Brisbane Motor Museum – either hire room or reserve tables at the café. Proposed end of August.

N. Webb has done a power point of the Club History. Suggested do the PowerPoint at the President's Choice of Movie Night, perhaps tie in with movie about Coominya Church (July).

G. Bickford – Swap meet in the long weekend of October with the Riley Club.

Next General Meeting: Tuesday 12th May 2026 at 7:00 PM at Grange Library, Grange.

Dedicated to the preservation and enjoyment of Rover, Land Rover and Range Rover vehicles.
